

CITY OF ANGELS
JEWELRY

*One Day Only
Mark Your Calendars*

We are pleased to announce that in anticipation of holiday gift-giving, we will be having Meg Geddes and her incredible vintage medal jewelry here for a Sunday Trunk Show. We will have at least 30 necklaces, some in sterling, some in white gold and some in yellow gold. Some are set in diamonds or sapphires, some less expensive pieces are not. Because these are definitely one-of-a-kind pieces, there is no duplication of necklaces. Each necklace is unique. Most are depictions of the Blessed Mother, but we also have St. Therese and the Infant of Prague. Meg is also producing a beautiful line of vintage reproductions in sterling silver, including Joan of Arc, Madonna of the Lilies and Our lady of Lourdes. They are like nothing you have seen. Be sure to mark your calendars for this special day.
