

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Priest: Like the couple in Cana, we invite the Lord Jesus, Mary and the apostles to our celebration. We invoke their names as we turn to God in prayer.

For all nations, races and religious groups, that Martin Luther King's dream of peace be fulfilled among us,

+We pray to the Lord.

May we strive to embody God's promise of comfort for those who mourn for all who are grieving the loss of loved ones, homes, and livelihoods because of fires; we pray:

+We pray to the Lord.

For this community, that we heed Mary's call to do whatever Jesus tells us,

+We pray to the Lord.

For the sick and the suffering, especially those listed in our book of the sick, on our prayer wall, and for:

Matthew Vallejo
Elizabeth Grace Marie Carr
Caroline Anne Marie Carr
Ramon Rios

+We pray to the Lord

For our beloved dead, that they see God face to face, and especially for:

Randa Dee Littell
Sally Young
James B Young
Mark Mellinger

+We pray to the Lord.
