

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Jesus tells us that our God is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. And we know that in Christ, we will rise to eternal life.

Yet we also know that we must pass through death before we can see the living God face to face in Heaven.

Because we hope to share in this beautiful promise of Heaven, we follow the path of Jesus Christ on earth. Jesus teaches us the truth and he shows us the way to have eternal life with our Father in Heaven.

We live by this hope. That is why we try to lead a good life — a life of love for God and a life of service to our families and our neighbors. That is why we come to the Eucharist, which is the pledge and foretaste of our Redemption.

For those who believe, death is not the end. Death is a new beginning.

But we need to prepare for that moment. And this preparation is a gift that we offer to our loved ones.

Our Catholic Cemeteries can offer you and your loved ones the help you need to make these necessary preparations. For our cemeteries, helping you is a ministry and a work of mercy that expresses our shared hope in the Resurrection.

St. Paul once wrote: Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, nor has the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him.

Let us strive to be those who love him. Let us live for Heaven!

May Our Blessed Mother Mary watch over you and your families, and may our good God bless you and keep you and make his face shine upon you.
