Catechizing Corner!

The second Sunday of Lent and the transfiguration gospel are intended to accompany the Church on our own ascent to Jerusalem and the resurrection of Easter. The transfiguration serves as a shining beacon of hope to strengthen the church and increase its zeal as it follows Christ to the cross and subsequent glory. It is also a message of hope to believers that they would one day share in the glory Christ revealed on that high mountain. This hope is reflected in the opening prayer: "Enlighten us with your word, that we may find the way to your glory."

Call to Prayer

Begin by calling upon God: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Let us pause for a moment and listen attentively to this week's passage.

The Word of God Mark 9:2-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

The Gospel of the Lord

Gospel Glossary

Rabbi is a Jewish scholar or teacher
Transfigured means to turn into something more beautiful or elevated.

Faith Sharing

Questions of the Week:

Children: How much do you trust Jesus?

Teen: How much of your daily life do you put your trust and faith in God?

Family: What would you like to ask God to do for you and your family?

Adult: How deeply do you believe that since God is for you, no one can destroy you?

Closing Prayer

God, through our observance of Lent, help us to understand the meaning of your Son's death and resurrection, and teach us to reflect it in our lives. We ask this, as we ask all things, through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
