Catechizing Corner!

The heart of today's Gospel lies in the fact that Jesus is the Strong One who rescues us from all that we fear. Jesus is the one who defends us from the grip of the strong man. Is it no wonder that we tremble in awe? Wouldn't it be incredibly awesome if our assemblies really believed in the marrow of our bones that Christ is the defender of our lives, and so we have nothing to fear? We would worship differently and we would live stress-free lives. The purpose of liturgy is to help us believe and live that truth. Christ fills us, nourishes us, and rescues us from fear week after week, until we return next week to be replenished again.

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

Holy Family is a welcoming Catholic
Eucharistic community of disciples of Jesus Christ connecting faith with life and reaching out to those in need!

Call to Prayer

Begin by calling upon God: In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Let us pause for a moment and listen attentively to this week's passage.

The Word of God Mark 3:20-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus came home with his disciples. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind." The scribes who had come from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "By the prince of demons he drives out demons." Summoning them, he began to speak to them in parables, "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Gospel Glossary

Beelzebul refers to Lucifer or another name for Satan.

Blasphemes are words or actions used to commit a crime in God's name.

Scribes were men specially trained in writing and were influential as interpreters.

And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. But no one can enter a strong man's house to plunder his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder the house. Amen, I say to you, all sins and all blasphemies that people utter will be forgiven them. But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an everlasting sin." For they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." His mother and his brothers arrived. Standing outside they sent word to him and called him. A crowd seated around him told him, "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." But he said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Faith Sharing

Questions of the Week:

Children: Who is part of your Christ family? And why are they important to you?

Teen: How can we resist doing something that God does not want us to do?

Family: Have you ever had trouble believing a family member? How can you be more loving to your relatives like you are to your Christ family?

Adult: What are the demons that sometime take over your life?

Closing Prayer

God, you have promised to remain for ever with those who do what is just and right. Help us to live in your presence. We ask this, as we ask all things, through Christ our Lord, Amen.
