

PRESIDER: Jesus lifts the burdens of those who come to him, so let us approach our Lord with all that weighs upon our hearts:

For our Holy Father, bishops, priests and deacons – that they may be guided by the Holy Spirit to lead with meek and gentle hearts, helping the faithful to take up the light yoke of Christ and walk according to the Spirit rather than the flesh,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For world leaders and government officials – that the humble King of Peace, prophesied by Zechariah, may banish the weapons of war and division from our midst, inspiring leaders to break the bows of conflict and command true peace to all the nations,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For the United States of America celebrating her 250th birthday this weekend – that we may be thankful for all who have given service to keep our country free, especially those who serve in our U.S. Armed Forces; that we may never take our freedoms and blessings for granted; that we may be quick to share our good fortune with others in need; that we may continually strive to build a just and peaceful society; and, now consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and fully trusting in God’s love and mercy, that our hearts may be united to Christ, so that our families and communities may enjoy peace and happiness, broken relationships reconciled, injustices repaired, the wounds of our land healed, and the unalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness protected,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For the respect and protection of human life in all its stages – that we may recognize it as a gift from God we should treasure and value at all costs,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For those among us who feel distant from God or burdened by sin – that they may discover the mercy of Jesus, whose yoke is easy and whose burden is light, and confidently return to the sacraments,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For our parish family – that we may become a community of the “little ones,” welcoming the simple truths of the Gospel and actively helping one another to carry the daily crosses of life with joy,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER | PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL
07.05.2026 | 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For those who are dying and those facing terminal illness – that they may find comfort in knowing that the Spirit of God promises life to our mortal bodies, filling them with the hope of the resurrection,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For those who are weary and carry heavy burdens, whether from physical illness, mental anxiety, or spiritual distress – that the Spirit of healing may lift them up, relieve their pain, and restore them to health of body, mind or spirit, especially those named in our Prayer Box for the Sick, on our Prayer Wall, and:

Atreus Mosqueda-Mojarro
Sr. Sheila McNiff

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

For all our dearly departed loved ones – that through the same Spirit of the One who raised Jesus from the dead, they may enter into new life in the kingdom of heaven, most especially:

David Cowen †
Sal Rodriguez †
Carmelita Ancheta †

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

And for the eternal repose of the soul(s) of:

5:00pm	Jesus Perez †
6:30am	Rose De Mendoza †
9:30am	Francis Hon †
11:15am	Ramon Del Rio †

for whom this Mass is offered,

And for the intentions of:

8:00am	Ted Adriano
12:45pm	Joseph Kloss & Family
5:30pm	Cari Bautista

for whom this Mass is offered,

+ WE PRAY TO THE LORD.

PRESIDER: Compassionate Father, send forth your Spirit to dwell in our hearts that we too might show mercy to others and act with kindness toward all your beloved children. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
