

Reflection Question of the Week

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 20, 2026

Have you ever felt left out because someone else got to do something before you?
How did that make you feel?

Children

Where do you find yourself comparing your life, work, or accomplishments with others?
What might Jesus be inviting you to see differently about God's generosity?

Adults

When you see someone getting an opportunity that you wanted, how do you usually respond – especially if you think you deserve it more?

Teens

How can we help one another celebrate someone else's good fortune instead of comparing who gets more or who deserves more?

Families

The Word of God

Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Gospel Glossary

A parable is a story that teaches a lesson.

Idle means not doing anything.

A foreman is someone in charge of other workers.

To summon means to call someone to help you or report to you.

Bore means to suffer and put up with something.

Envious means jealous.

Closing Prayer

Creator God, guide us, as you guide creation according to your law of love. May we love one another and come to perfection in the eternal life prepared for us. We ask this, as we ask all things, through Christ our Lord. Amen.